ABOUT

Electrical Contracting News is the ultimate trade magazine for the UK's electrical contracting industry. For over 40 years, ECN has been delivering industry-leading editorial content that covers everything from lighting and wiring accessories to HVAC and power management. With a circulation of 11,500 and approximately 23,000 readers each month, ECN is the go-to publication for electrical professionals who want to stay on top of the latest developments in the industry.

What sets ECN apart from other trade magazines is its unique newspaper-style layout and modern design, which make it a highly regarded and well-established brand in the electrical sector. Advertisers and editorial contributors alike benefit from the dynamic platform that ECN provides, making it an excellent choice for businesses who want to reach a wide and engaged audience.

Carly Weller - Editor, ECN

In addition to its print publication, ECN also has a digital presence, with a website that offers the latest news and information in an easily accessible format. With over 10,000 page views a month, it is clear that ECN's readership extends beyond its print subscribers, making it an essential resource for anyone working in the electrical contracting industry.

In summary, ECN is the must-read trade magazine for electrical professionals who want to stay informed and ahead of the curve. Its industry-leading editorial content, unique design, and digital presence make it an excellent choice for businesses who want to reach a wide and engaged audience in the UK's electrical sector.
